From Saturday December 1, to Tuesday December 4, 1750.

St. James's, December 4.

THE following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin, tranſmitted to his Excellency the Earl of Harrington, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, having been preſented to the King, his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive the ſame very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin, beg Leave in the moſt humble Manner to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Return to your Britiſh Dominions, and on the happy Increaſe of the Royal Family by the Birth of a Prince.

We are fully ſenſible that the Welfare of theſe Kingdoms depends (next under God) on your illuſtrious Houſe, and therefore eſteem it one of the greateſt Bleſſings we can poſſibly enjoy, to ſee your Majeſty's Government further ſecured by a numerous Iſſue.

This gives a moſt pleaſing Proſpect to all your faithful Subjects, particularly to this Seminary of Learning, which has been early diſtinguiſh'd by eminent Marks of your Majeſty's Favour and Protection.

Princes educated under the Influence of your Majeſty's Royal Example, will (we aſſure ourſelves) continue the Happineſs of theſe Nations to the lateſt Poſterity.

Conſtantinople, October 24. Chiaur Oghlu, the Rebel, who appeared in Aſia, has been deſtroyed by the Prudence and Conduct of Ragib, Paſcha of Heyden, who has ſince been removed to the Paſchalyck of Sydon; and Piry Muſtapha, Paſcha of Sydon, has been removed to that of Urfa. The Captain Paſcha was depoſed on his Return from the Archipelago, and ſent as Paſcha to Canea; and Bechir Paſcha, the oldeſt in this Government, and who married a Sultana, a Couſin of the Grand Signor's, is made Captain Paſcha in his Room: He arrived here a few Days ago, and is lodged on Board of one of the Men of War that came into Port ſome Days before him. By Advices from Perſia, received at Aleppo, we are informed, that Shawrooke Schach is again placed on that Throne, though they have left him but one Eye. He has two Competitors, and his Affairs looked very deſperate. They had ſeveral Reports as if the Ophgoons were marching from Candabar to take Poſſeſſion of that Kingdom; and many were of Opinion, that they would ſucceed to the total Subverſion of the old Perſian Monarchy.

Naples, Nov. 14. The ſuperior Officers of the Mint having examined the Weight and Quality of the Gold and Silver Species lately coined there on the King's Account, amounting in the Whole to the Sum of 300,000 Ducats in Gold, and five Millions in Silver; and finding them to be full Weight, and agreeable to the Standard, a Diſtribution of them is ordered to be made to the publick Banks of this City, for the greater Conveniency of Commerce. The Marquis de l'Hopital, the French Ambaſſador, is preparing to depart from this City, on his Return to France, to take on him the Poſt of Firſt Maſter of the Horſe to the Meſdames de France, to which he has lately been appointed. And 'tis ſaid, that M. de Horſan, a Relation to the Marquis de Puſſieulx, is to ſucceed him here in the Embaſſy from the Court of France. On the 3d Inſtant, the Nephew of Marſhal Belliſle arrived in this City from Rome. On the 4th the King's Name-day was celebrated at Court with the uſual Solemnity; the Foreign Miniſters, the Nobility, and Military Officers, were to pay their Duties to their Majeſties on that Occaſion in rich Habits; and in the Evening there was a triple Diſcharge of the Artillery of the Fortreſſes and Gallies. We hear from Palermo, that two large Row-Boat Corſairs from Barbary, having landed at the Pantallerca 25 Men out of their Crew, to plunder that Place, the Inhabitants roſe up in Arms, aſſiſted by a ſmall Garriſon, and entirely defeated the Moors, whereof eleven were drowned, eight killed, and ſix taken Priſoners. Within theſe two Weeks paſt, we have had moſt violent Hurricanes and rainy Weather, which occaſioned great Damages at Sea, and in divers Villages of the Provinces of Terra di Lavoro and Salerno.

Rome, Nov. 17. We hear that the Duke of Nivernois, the French Ambaſſador, has lately had an Audience of the Pope, in which he had declared, that the King his Maſter being deſirous of the Preſervation of the Peace of Italy, had ordered him to enquire, if he, the Pope, ſtill continued to approve of the Project for ſuppreſſing the Patriarcate of Aquileja, and erecting two Biſhopricks inſtead of it; and that he had alſo Orders to offer his Maſter's Mediation for the Accommodation of theſe Differences.

few Days ago arrived in this City from Germany, the Baggage of Prince Eſterhaſi, which was depoſited in the Tuſcan Palace in the Piazza Madama; and as an Apartment is preparing there for him, it is believed that he deſigns to paſs the Carneval in this City, before he proceeds to the Court of Naples. The General of the Jeſuites having been taken dangerouſly ill laſt Week, the Pope went twice to his Apartment at the Quirinal, in order to confer with him on ſome important Affairs relating to that Order. On the 6th Inſtant, Count Moneſtarolo, the King of Sardinia's Miniſter to the Court of Naples, having executed his Commiſſions at that Court, arrived in this City on his Return to Turin. On the 10th, the Pope, attended by the College of Cardinals, aſſiſted at the Funeral Obſequies, which were performed at the Quirinal for the late King of Portugal; after which, Cardinal Valenti pronounced a Funeral Oration.

Florence, Nov. 20. Laſt Week the Regency received Notice from Conſtantinople, of the Arrival at that Port, on the 3d of October laſt, of the Emperor's three Ships of War, commanded by Mr. Acton; and that they were to proceed from thence to Alexandria and the Coaſt of Barbary, on their Return to Leghorn. On the 12th Inſtant, by Directions from the Court of Vienna, the Regency gave Orders to admit, in the uſual Forms, M. Lutyens, a German Merchant, as Conſul from the King of Pruſſia at the Port of Leghorn. On the 16th the Marquis Rinuccini, his Lady, and other Florentine Ladies and Noblemen, ſet out from this City on their Travels to Rome, and other principal Cities of Italy. Some of the Members of the Regency were ſent for to Town the Beginning of this Week, to hold an extraordinary Council upon the Notice that had been ſent from Leghorn, that on the 14th, at Night, Information having been given to the Patroul, that ſome Algerine Merchants eſtabliſhed there, had introduced a Perſon into their Houſe, with a Deſign, as the Informer ſuppoſed, to do him ſome Injury. The Officer of the Patroul, without any farther Enquiries, ſent to force open the Houſe. The Algerines being ſurprized at this Behaviour in the Night, refuſed the Patroul Admittance, and from their Windows put themſelves in a Poſture of Defence. The Soldiers ſay, that a Piſtol was fired upon them, which made them likewiſe fire, by which one of the Algerines was ſhot, and fell dead into the Street. The next Morning, at Break of Day, the Sbirri, with other Soldiers, went to the Houſe, the Door of which was opened to them without any Difficulty, and ſtrict Search was made, but nobody, except one of the Algerines, was found in it, nor any Circumſtance diſcovered to ſupport the Accuſation or Suſpicion of any Crimes. The Regency are greatly diſpleaſed with the Officer of the Patroul for acting ſo violently upon ſo ſlight an Information, which has occaſioned the Death of an Algerine Merchant in his own Houſe. The Algerines have deputed one of their Nation to come to Florence, to complain to the Regency of this Violence, aſſerting, that no Piſtol was fired from the Window upon the Patroul; and as this is the only Circumſtance that can juſtify the Soldiers for having fired and killed one of them, ſtrict Orders have been ſent to Leghorn to examine into it.

Venice, Nov. 27. The Republick, to manifeſt their ſincere Deſire of a ſolid Accommodation of the Affair of Aquileja, has condeſcended to propoſe to the Pope, by the Means of Cardinal Rezzonico, as a Preliminary, a Project for the Tranſlation of the Patriarcate to Udine. It is alſo determined to ſend Signor Bini to Rome, to aſſiſt Cardinal Rezzonico in the Conduct of this Negociation, being eſteemed a very able Man, perfectly well verſed in all that relates to the preſent Diſpute, and a great Favourite of the Pope. From theſe Circumſtances it is concluded, that the Senate is earneſtly deſirous of terminating this Affair amicably; and if the Pope receives this Overture favourably, as it is generally believed he will, it is imagined that he will deſire the Empreſs to ſuſpend the Recalling of her Miniſter from hence. M. Chavigny, the French Ambaſſador, has notified his Arrival to the College and the Foreign Miniſters, and received their Viſits of Ceremony upon it; but he has not been able to return them, being ſtill indiſpoſed. Prince Eſterhaſi, Ambaſſador from their Imperial Majeſties to the King of Naples, arrived here on Sunday, in his Way to that Court. A Deputation of two Savii has been ſent from the College to compliment him, and all other Marks of Civility will be ſhewn to him, that are conſiſtent with the Forms of this Government.

Whitehall, November 30, 1750.

Whereas it has been humbly repreſented to the King, that on Wedneſday the 21ſt of this Inſtant November, an anonymous Letter directed, For Mr. Lionel Seaman, was dropt in the Gateway leading to the Anchor Inn in the Town of Froome in the County of Somerſet, threatning to murther him the ſaid Lionel Seaman on Sunday the 25th of this Inſtant November, or at ſome other Time; and alſo greatly abuſing and threatning the Life of the Revd. Giles Hill, Clerk, another of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the ſaid County: His Majeſty is therefore pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any Perſon concerned in writing and dropping the ſaid Letter, (except the Perſon who actually wrote the ſaid Letter) who ſhall diſcover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, ſo that he, ſhe or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

BEDFORD.

And for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſon or Perſons concerned in writing and dropping the ſaid Letter, we the Church Wardens of Froome aforeſaid, for ourſelves and Succeſſors, do hereby promiſe a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Perſon or Perſons, (except the Perſon who actually wrote the ſaid Letter) who ſhall diſcover one or more Accomplice or Accomplices therein, ſo that he, ſhe or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Joſiah Ames.
Tho. Davis.

And as a farther Encouragement, we the ſaid Lionel Seaman and Giles Hill do promiſe a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Perſon or Perſons, (except the Perſon who actually wrote the ſaid Letter) who ſhall diſcover one or more Accomplice or Accomplices therein, ſo that he, ſhe or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Lionel Seaman.
Giles Hill.

Chriſt Hoſpital, Dec. 4, 1740.

Whereas John Weſt, late of London, Scrivener, and Frances his Wife, both deceaſed, did in their ſeveral Lifetimes, convey to the Governors of Chriſt Hoſpital, London, divers Eſtates in and about the City of London and elſewhere, for the annual Payment of Five Pounds, to Poor Men and Women of the Age of Fifty Years or upwards, during their Natural Lives; and directed, that their their Relations by Conſanguinity ſhall have Preference: The Governors of the ſaid Hoſpital do therefore hereby give Notice, that if any Perſon or Perſons related to the ſaid John Weſt, or Frances his Wife as aforeſaid, who ſtand in Need or Deſire the Benefit of the ſaid Charity, ſhall not, in Forty Days from the Day of the Date hereof, apply themſelves to the ſaid Governors, at the Compting Houſe in the ſaid Hoſpital, and make out their Relation to the Donors, they will be excluded the Benefit of the ſaid Charity.
